

College of Education-Kharod, Tal. Ankleshwar, Dist. Bharuch

6.2.3 Annual e-governance report

- College schedule is being planned, prepared and implemented in electronic form.
- All the necessary and required reports are prepared and saved in computers.
- College is having its own website. Required data are being published on website of the college regularly.
- ERP portal is being used for the admission, enrollment, evaluation and other purposes.
- Data are uploaded on AISHE portal.
- Attendance reports are also displayed on college website.
- Online attendance of the students are submitted on university portal on daily basis
- Faculty members are involved in the online assessment and evaluation process as per the responsibilities assigned by the university.
- College helps students in various types of online functions like submission of migration certificate, submission of exam form, selection of internship school etc.
- College is ready to accept and implement all the things require as a part of the e-governance.